

NATIONAL COALITION ON THE EDUCATION EMERGENCY

Tue 02 Nov 2021

The National Coalition on the Education Emergency (NCEE) is releasing the publication A FUTURE AT STAKE, an English language resource on the Covid-19 pandemic and education in India.

Greetings from the National Coalition on the Education Emergency!

We are writing to invite you to a press conference on Tuesday November 2, 5:00–6:30 p.m (IST), to release an important publication: A FUTURE AT STAKE, which unravels the education emergency being faced by the nation due to the Covid-19 lockdown.

The publication discusses the health, education and life implications of the Covid-19 pandemic on 26 crore children of India. The document identifies and discusses specific steps that need to be taken by the national and state education systems, schools, teachers, parents and communities to respond to the education emergency and to save the future of our children.

Time: Tuesday November 2, 5:00–6:30 p.m (IST)

The publication A FUTURE AT STAKE will be released by Magsaysay awardee, and ex-head of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) Padmasree Smt. Shantha Sinha. Dr. Sajitha Bashir, former Adviser in the Office of the Global Director of Education Practice, World Bank, the primary author of the publication will briefly talk about the publication. Mr. Gurumurthy K, Director IT for Change, and a core group member of the National Coalition on the Education Emergency, will release the Education Emergency Policy Tracker and a recent survey TeacherSpeak. Dr. Manisha Priyam, National University of Educational Planning and Administration (NUEPA) will comment on the publication. Please see the agenda below.

The release event will bring together members of the National Coalition on the Education Emergency who are working in different parts of India on the issues relating to the emergency, severely affecting children from marginalized groups, who are the most vulnerable of India's citizens.

Co-organisers – Dr. Manisha Priyam, Dr. Sajitha Bashir and Mr. Gurumurthy K.
